MARSHAL HILLIARD'S STORY. went to the house about 3 o'clock.

"First I sent Allen, then Doherty, around the yard and searched the barn; search to be thorough. the side door of the barn was open, the door on the left was closed, but I am not positive whether the window in the west was closed or not; I think the east window was closed.

"It was extremely warm in the barn, I only looked at one or two of the rooms in the house that day. The next time, west in the house was on Sat-urday forenoon, after the funeral. I looked into the room of Mr. and Mrs. Borden, then into Miss Lizzie's room and then into Miss Emma's room.

There were other officers there who were looking for anything they could find.
"I made no examination of the dresses; I went again that afternoon and in a general way searched the house. I tok a dress away; I asked Mr. Jennings for the dress she (Miss Borden) wore that day. I was then in Mrs. Borden's rom, and he went out, returning with this dress, which has been shown.

I saw Miss Borden afterwards in Emma's room. When the dress was handed to me I passed it to Dr. Dolan. When she could help it. I had no talk with Miss Borden while I had the dress. (Dress shown and identi-fied.) The dress and a white skirt which with what I called a lounge cover (cover identified), and given to Mr. Jennings passed them over to Dr. Dolan.

Saturday afternoon. I went there again There was a large crowd of people pres-ent. I sent for officers and had the crowd removed to the street. Then I went into the house, where I saw the prisoner, her sister and Mr. Morse.
"There was a conversation, but Dr.

Coughlin and the others did the talking. After we entered the parlor Dr. Coughin asked that the family remain in the house for a few days and not go on the were annoyed by the people to send they should be protected. LIZZIE HEARS SHE IS SUSPECTED.

"Then Miss Lizzie asked: 'What, is but the Mayor said: 'Perhaps Mr. Morse last night.' Lizzie then said: 'I want to know the truth,' and the Mayor (Coughlin) said he was sorry to say it, but that she was suspected. "Then Emma spoke up and said: 'We have tried to keep it from you as long as we could.' Then the Mayor asked happened, and she said in the barn for wenty minutes, looking for lead sinkers.

TALK OF THE TURF

Tammany's Withdrawal from the Suburban Is a Great Disappointment.

BANQUET IS ALSO OUT OF IT.

The Big Race Looks & Gift for Lamplighter J. Lambley Riding Again.

Turfmen learned last evening through the Sporting Edition of "The Evening World" that the great four-year-old colt Tammany had met with a mishap that would effectually put an end to his chances in the Suburban Handicap. The news was a surprise, for while Tamhave never been under wumpteton. It seems that a week ago the colt worked a mile in 1.44 and pulled up lame. Matt NEW HAVEN, June 14.—Proceedings on the near forefoot had burst. An a suit for which more than $5.000,000 but who placed on the injured profits and damages will be asked, have in a suit for which more than $5,00,000 bar whoe was placed on the injured profits and damages will be asked, have member and Tammany continued his just been started by J. C. Richardson, work. Yesterday it was discovered that the well-known reaper and harvester owing to the colt's favoring the inexpert of this city.

The suit will involve nearly all the veloped a splint. Marcus Daly, the was decided to scratch the colt from the Suburban. Though the incident is much to be regretted, it is pleasing to know that the injury will not be per-manent, and that the colt will yet have a chance at the great Lamplighter. Much of the interest in the Suburban will be destroyed because of Tammany's withdrawsl. Another bad bit of news is that Banquet is to be shipped to Chicago The big race, therefore, looks a gift for Lamplighter, who, with all his weight, should be able to stride over his opponents. There are very few horses in the rate that will be able to make the son of Spendthrift gallop.

The New York Jockey Club Handicap was the one redeeming feature of the racing at Morris Park yesterday. Pick-nicker won rather handily, and his per-formance opened many eyes. He was not considered to have a chance, and Mayor Gitroy No: Yet Certain that John Hyland swears that the Dolly colt is of no account. He may be right, but the colt does run some remarkable races at times.

Davy Johnson made one of his char-acteristic plunges on Adelbert and pulled off a good stake. The plunge on the Faustina colt was extraordinary and unwarranted.

Token was said to be as good as Kentigerna, but her race didn't prove anything of the kind. Charade's chances in the Suburban, udging by his race yesteday, are very
